

Boston, Feb. 3, 1853.

Dear Garrison:

19                      have you any friend in the Island of Jamaica to whom you could ~~address~~ a letter of introduction in behalf of my young friend Wm H.
Hurlbut? I feel a peculiar interest in him as the betrothed of my niece Miss King of Salem; but he is besides a young man of almost every grace & accomplishment, - & though a Carolinian in breeding & (I believe) birth, is strongly Anti-Slavery.

A severe fever has left him in a condition to require a West Indian winter. He will be very lonely, poor fellow! in the W.I.s - and his brilliant talents and exhaustless information will well repay any attention that may be shewn him there.

Very truly
Yr friend

Ellis Gray Loring.

P.S. He will leave Boston, possibly, on Monday next, & if you can oblige me I should be glad to have your <sup>before then</sup> letter, - He would like also an introduction in Hayti, but <sup>needs it</sup> more particularly in Jamaica.
